ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

International Residential Code, Section R105.5

"Every permit issued shall become invalid unless the work authorized by such permit is commenced within 180 days after its issuance, or after commencement of work if more than 180 days pass between inspections. The building official is authorized to grant, in writing, one or more extensions of time, for a periods not more than 180 days each. The extension shall be requested in writing and justifiable cause demonstrated."

Permits in the Town of Plainfield, NH are valid for 12 months and must be renewed prior to the expiration date on an approved permit. As stated in the IRC work must commence within 180 days, an extension may be requested if there is a delay in starting work.

The approved permit will expire at the end of the 12 months and can be renewed if work authorized by permit is still in progress and renewal is approved by the building official.

No permit will be renewed if work authorized by permit has not commenced and no justifiable cause can be demonstrated.

Inspection guidelines provided with approved permit must be performed and it is the responsibility of the permit holder to notify the building official that such work is ready for inspection. A final inspection is required after all work authorized by permit is completed.
