PRESS RELEASE

On August 4th, Sgt. Foss responded to a residence on Bean Road for a residential burglary. The homeowner found the house broken in to and their personal belongings stolen. The investigation revealed that the suspect appeared to have gone room to room taken numerous items before leaving.

A Neighborhood canvas was conducted by Plainfield Police with the assistance of the Cornish Police and New Hampshire State Police leading to information being developed of an older male exiting the woods in the area of the crime scene traveling on a black bicycle. Residents are encouraged to call the police with any information regarding observations made of this person.

Residents are reminded to lock your doors and windows when leaving you home, if going away over several days, please make arrangements to have the property checked, make neighbors aware that you will be away and report any unusual happening.
