

Paul M. Roberts
Chief of Police

Plainfield Police Department

PO Box 380, 110 Main Street,
Plainfield, New Hampshire 03770
Phone 603-469-3344 Fax 603-469-3343

IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

On Friday, February 4, 2011 at 4:10 PM, Travis Manley of Claremont New Hampshire was arrested without incident at 221 Lake Street, Manchester New Hampshire. This arrest was made by the New Hampshire Joint Fugitive Task Force Unit of the US Marshal Service with the assistance of Moultonborough Police Department, Detective Stephen Kessler and Chief Paul Roberts of the Plainfield Police Department and Parole Officer Brian Bernard.

The arrest stems from the investigations of Burglaries, Thefts and Damaged property reports. Sullivan County Attorney Marc Hathaway working closely with investigators approved the nationwide extradition limits on the warrant issued by Claremont District Court Judge Yazinski. Further investigations resulted in additional warrants for offenses that were committed in numerous communities, included but not limited to; Moultonborough, Lebanon, Laconia, Conway, Berlin, Gorham, Rochester and Plainfield.

Further arrests are pending as the investigation continues. Manley is being held at the Carroll County Corrections Facility pending his court appearance.

